Need a gift for a wine lover? 10 cru Beaujolais for $40 or less

2014 Pierre-Marie Chermette Domaine du Vissoux “Les Griottes” Rosé Beaujolais, $14 to $18

At the holiday table, a bottle of Fleurie, Morgon or Moulin à Vent is like a sociable guest who gets along with everyone — in this case, roast turkey or goose, prime rib, slow-roasted salmon, even roasted root vegetables.

Not ready to give up summer’s rosés? Try this one from southern Beaujolais, which has been a fixture in SoCal wine shops pretty much year-round. Scented with flowers and berries, Domaine de Vissoux rosé carries the taste of cherries, strawberries and sweet spices. A great match for smoked fish and Asian cuisines. Look for it at domaineLA in Hollywood, K&L Wine Merchants in Hollywood, Wine Exchange in Santa Ana and Woodland Hills Wine Company in Woodland Hills.
